

2020-2021 NOMINATION GUIDELINES

ABOUT

The Eugene and Marilyn Glick Indiana Authors Awards are a biennial program powered by Indiana Humanities and made possible by Glick Philanthropies. Every two years, the awards recognize and celebrate the best books published by Indiana writers in the previous two years. Nominations for the 2022 Indiana Authors Awards open Sept. 9, 2021, and close Jan. 14, 2022.

AWARD DESCRIPTIONS

Awards will be given to books in up to nine categories. Authors may self-nominate or be nominated by another person or organization (e.g., agent, publisher, friend). The nominator decides which category is the best fit for the piece being nominated. The following descriptions provide guidelines for each of the categories. If you have questions about which category is best for your book, email Bronwen Carlisle at bcarlisle@indianahumanities.org.

Books will be awarded in the following categories every two years:

- Fiction: This category includes literary fiction, novellas and short story collections written by a single author.
- Nonfiction: Biography, memoir, creative nonfiction and nonfiction written for a general, non-specialized audience will be considered in the nonfiction category.
- Poetry: Poetry book submissions should be written by a single author.
- Children's: This category includes young children's books (ages 0-6).
- Middle Grade: This category includes all genres of books intended for middle grade readers (ages 6-12).
- Young Adult: This category includes all genres of books intended for young adult readers (ages 12-19).
- Drama: Plays and screenplays that have been published, produced or performed will be considered.
- Genre: Science fiction, mystery, fantasy, western, horror, crime and romance should all be nominated in the genre category.
- Debut: This award recognizes the best first book by an Indiana author in any category.

You may enter books in multiple categories if they qualify. However, please fill out separate nomination forms and send the requested number of books for each category the book is nominated in.

LITERARY CHAMPION AND LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS

Two additional awards will be given to authors for their legacy and contributions to Indiana's literary community.

Literary Champion: This award recognizes extraordinary contributions to the community of readers and writers in Indiana by an individual or organization. Literary champions may be writers, but may also include librarians, teachers, arts organizations, writing group organizers and more. This award may be given to an individual or organization. The literary champion is nominated with an explanation of why the individual or organization is a good candidate for this award, along with no fewer than three letters of recommendation.

Lifetime Achievement: This award recognizes an extraordinary body of work by a Hoosier author. Authors do not need to be current Indiana residents to be considered, but they must have significant connections to the Hoosier State, or the subject matter of their works must display significant Indiana influence. This award is not given posthumously. Past winners include James Alexander Thom, Mari Evans and Dan Wakefield.

ELIGIBILITY

Nominations for the 2022 awards open Sept. 9, 2021. Books published between Jan. 1, 2020 and Dec. 31, 2021, are eligible for the award in 2022.

Nominated authors should be current full- or part-time residents of Indiana who have resided in the state for at least five (consecutive or non-consecutive) years. We will also consider books from authors with deep connections to the Hoosier State who might not currently live in the state. If you're not a current resident, you'll be asked upon applying to provide a description of why you consider yourself an Indiana author. Lifetime Achievement award nominees need not live in-state. For the Literary Champion award, special consideration is given to nominees currently living and working in-state.

Nominated books must have an assigned ISBN. Ebooks are eligible, but 5 paper copies must be submitted for consideration by the committee. Anthologies are not considered unless all authors included are Indiana authors. For any questions about eligibility, please email Bronwen Carlisle at bcarlisle@indianahumanities.org.

While awards are only given to authors with current residency or significant Indiana ties, the Indiana Authors Awards have great interest in sharing new books about Indiana. If you have a new book about Indiana that you would like to share for promotional purposes, please email info@indianaauthorsawards.org.

SUBMISSION

Nomination forms can be found at www.indianaauthorsawards.org. Be sure to select the correct nomination form for the intended category. When you complete the form, you will be asked to send five copies of the nominated book to:

Indiana Humanities
c/o Bronwen Carlisle
1500 N. Delaware St.
Indianapolis, IN 46202

Books submitted will not be returned to the sender. If book costs present a barrier to entry for the author or submitter, please email Bronwen Carlisle at bcarlisle@indianahumanities.org to request a waiver. Requesting a waiver has no bearing on eligibility and will not be shared with any selection committee members.

SELECTION PROCESS AND TIMELINE

Three-person juries made up of subject-expert scholars, librarians and writers review and select the winners. In any award cycle, juries have the option to make no award. Jury decisions are final. Authors will be notified on or before August 1, 2022. Winners will be announced to the public in September 2022.

PRIZE INFORMATION

Winners of the Indiana Authors Awards receive a $5,000 prize (with the exception of the Literary Champion awardee, who receives $2,500) as well as a physical award crafted from Indiana limestone. In the case of a winning book co-authored by multiple Indiana authors, awardees would receive one physical award and one monetary prize to split. Indiana Authors Award winners may also designate a $500 gift to an Indiana library of their choice.

QUESTIONS?

Contact Bronwen Carlisle, programs and special projects manager, at bcarlisle@indianahumanities.org | 317.616.9103.